Numb

Indii G. & SadBoyProlific

Last girl didn't really love me, pretty face but her soul was so ugly,laugh it all off,everything was a joke,grabbin' the rope and I hope that I choke, now im numb to the pain so I'm grippin' the blade, draggin' it down but I can't feel a thing, where'd I go wrong like what did I do, agreed with everything I ain't never tried to fight you, put it through my head so I spark up like a ritchu, kinda wanna cut my life short like I had to, my best friends a razor blade and you don't get it, wasting my time on you now I regret it, I hate the day I met you, karmas a bitch and I hope that it gets you, I'm number one put myself off the ground, when I'm happy you best not come round
