My Baby

Janet Jackson

Ya see
I go by the name of Kan the Louis Vuitton Don
I'm with my home girl
Who need to hook me up with some of her home girls
Yeah, Janet Jackson
We back baby
So many said we'd never know love like this
They never felt your kiss and how good your touch can be so
Many a days I face the pressure to walk away
From what the people say but you mean so much to me, so
Baby, these butterflies they never lie
Been through so much pain before and
Baby, I had to try 'cause you're not like most guys
And I ain't ashamed to say that you're my
Don't matter what they say baby
They just don't know my baby and how I feel 'bout you
Don't matter what they say baby
I won't let go my baby and how I feel 'bout you
When you look in my eyes I wish could read my mind
And know how I feel inside and hear what they say about you
Just because they can't see, you're more than enough for me
Why can't they just let us be, leave us alone
Baby, these butterflies they never lie
Been through so much pain before and
Baby, I had to try 'cause you're not like most guys
And I ain't ashamed that's why you are my
Don't matter what they say baby
They just don't know my baby and how I feel 'bout you
Don't matter what they say baby
I won't let go my baby and how I feel about you
Don't matter what they say baby
They just don't know my baby and how I feel 'bout you
Don't matter what they say baby
I won't let go my baby and how I feel about you
I go by the name Kanye Omari
And I wrote this just to say I'm sorry
I had foreign cars and houses
I had porno stars and spouses
You tryin' stab one like Jack the rippa

I was tryin' to stab two like Jack the trippa
My nigga Tone been locked for a minute
He come home, he from the street
He gon' want him some scrippas
And I'm a big tipper, I don't even be trippin'
This my first real Rolex it don't even be tickin'
This my first pair of earrings I can wear in a shower
Without 'em cloudin' up in a half an hour
So that, basically mean my paper gettin' mean
Basically mean I'm into better things
I was an addict at cheatin' but I stopped for sure
You a addict, you go with Janet Jackson, you cured
Don't matter what they say baby
They just don't know my baby and how I feel 'bout you
Don't matter what they say baby
I won't let go my baby and how I feel about you
Don't matter what they say baby
They just don't know my baby and how I feel 'bout you
Don't matter what they say baby
I won't let go my baby and how I feel about you
So good, so good, so good, so good
