

The Ballad of Love and Hate

The Avett Brothers

Love writes a letter and sends it to Hate My vacation's ending I'm coming home late The weather was fine and the ocean was great and I can't wait to see you again

Hate reads the letter and throws it away
No one here cares if you go or you stay I barely even noticed that you were away I'll see you or I won't ...whatever

Love sings a song as she sails through the sky
The water looks bluer through our pretty eyes And everyone knows it whenever she flies and also when she comes down

Hate keeps his head up and walks through the street Every stranger and drifter he greets And shakes hands with every loner he meets with a serious look on his face

Love arrives safely with suitcase in tow Carrying with her the good things we know A reason to live and a reason to grow to trust...to hold....to care

Hate sits alone on the hood of his car without much regard to the moon or the stars Lazily killing the last of a jar of the strongest stuff you can drink

Love takes a taxi...a young man drives as soon as he sees her hope fills his eyes but tears follow after the end of the ride cause he might never see her again

Hate gets home lucky to still be alive
He screams o'er the sidewalk and into the drive
The clock in the kitchen says two fifty-five and the clock in the kitchen is slow

Love has been waiting patient and kind just wanting a phone call or some kind of sign that the one that she cares for who's of his mind will make it back safe to her arms

Hate stumbles forward and leans in the door weary head hung down eyes to the floor He says Love I'm sorry and she says what for I'm your and that's it...whatever I should not have been gone for so long I'm yours and that's it forever Your mine and that's it forever
