I Dont

Five Foot Thick

You say you're doin' better
For your sake I hope it's true
I wish you well
But that's all that I can doSave your 'I'm sorry's'
Just leave 'em out the door
You can't make me feel
Guilty anymoreYou say, I should stay with you
That Jesus forgives you
You pray I will, but I won't
The difference is
Jesus loves you, I don'tI know it sounds cruel
And it's really not like me, but
You've put me in a place
I never thought I'd beThese tears that I'm crying
Are just tears of goodbye
I hope you find someone else
Somewhere in your life
Somewhere in your lifeYou say, I should stay with you
That Jesus forgives you
You pray I will, but I won't
The difference is
Jesus loves you, I don'tI don't wanna know you still want me
Don't need to hear you can't sleep
No I don't, no I don'tYou say, I should stay with you
That Jesus forgives you
You pray I will, but I won't
The difference is
Jesus loves you, oh I know
Jesus loves you, I don't
