

Animal Girl

Liz Phair

It's an animal girl and it's lying on the beach
Its ass can surf in the sand while its head's asleep
Its fingers roll a reefer cigarette
Its skin can decompose beneath the sweat I know all I need to know
I know how much girl to go
Drinking iced scotch and soda
I proclaim the ocean like a Copper tone baby Wait and see
You don't know who I am
Fig or tree
Lex or Superman The owners may dim the lights
The sailors may start to fight back the dinner
They wolfed at the taco joint
But maybe a blue moon will shine in the heart of the hood It's an animal girl
And its knees are turning black
The symptomatic flips it on its back
There's a gathering crowd of heavy breasted men The burn patrol is freaking out again
I know all I need to know
I know how much girl to go
