The Incumbent

Soul Coughing

New York, New York, I won't go back
Indelible reminder of the steel I lack
I gave you seven years what did you give me back?
A jaw-grind disposition to a panic attackNew York, New York, I won't go back
Indelible reminder of the steel I lack
I gave you seven years, what did you give me back?
A jaw-grind disposition to a panic attackNew York, New York, I won't go back
Indelible reminder of the steel I lack
I gave you seven years, what did you give me back?
A jaw-grind disposition to a panic attackOn this side the incumbent
And who quoth
There's only one everything
Red sucker mouthOn this side the incumbent
And who quoth
There's only one everything
Red sucker mouthNew York, New York, I won't go back
Indelible reminder of the steel I lack
I gave you seven years what did you give me back?
A jaw-grind disposition to a panic attackNew York, New York, I won't go back
Indelible reminder of the steel I lack
I gave you seven years what did you give me back?
A jaw-grind disposition to a panic attackNew York, New York, I won't go back
Indelible reminder of the steel I lack
I gave you seven years what did you give me back?
A jaw-grind disposition to a panic attackOn this side the incumbent
And who quoth
There's only one everything
Red sucker mouthOn this side the incumbent
And who quoth
There's only one everything
Red sucker mouthNew York, New York, I won't go back
Indelible reminder of the steel I lack
I gave you seven years what did you give me back?
A jaw-grind disposition to a panic attackNew York, New York, I won't go back
Indelible reminder of the steel I lack
I gave you seven years what did you give me back?
A jaw-grind disposition to a panic attackNew York, New York, I won't go back
Indelible reminder of the steel I lack
I gave you seven years what did you give me back?

A jaw-grind disposition to a panic attack
