My Own Enemy

Immolation

I can feel the weakness in you
It's just a matter of time
Once I have control
You'll never be the sameI make your question faith
Put your morals to the test
Bend you into submission
My essence you can not fightI'll show you things you've never seen
Expose the darkness deep within
Taste and feel a different world
Leave behind all you wereNow heights of passion
And the pleasures of pain
Show no compassion, show no remorse
My helpless slave, do as I say
Indulge me to the endTaunting
And destructive
Go ahead
You know you want it
Feel temptation
Just give in
Taste it once
You won't go backThe easy path was clear to see
The choice you made has brought you here
Your broken life in front of me
Spiral down into my arms
