

Another Man's Woman

Carbon Leaf

I fell in love with another man's woman
Another man's woman's got a hold on me
I'm on my knees, I cannot see
She came out of the sun just like a deity
She came out of the cold and she is melting me
I fell in love with another man's woman
Another man's woman's got a hold on me
She's swimming in my head just like a buzz of bees
She's hit me like a cyclone on the seven seas
She came in from the rain and she's drowning me
Adrift and marooned on a splinter at sea
Washed up in the desert and there's nothing to drink
And it's no surprise that nothing rhymes with woman
Adrift and marooned on a splinter at sea
Washed up in the desert and there's nothing to drink
Well, oh Lord I'm sure you're bored of forgiving me
But don't you see
I fell in love with another man's woman
Another man's woman's got a hold on me
A match in the rain, a moth to the flame
A pleasure seekin' yahoo with a pension for pain
A double decker bus of trouble, I'm in the way
I fell in love with another man's woman
Another man's woman's got a hold on me
I painted over truth with my tear stained lies
I took all of the honey 'til the honeycomb dried
These fantasies could make a dead man rise
Adrift and marooned on a splinter at sea
Washed up in the desert and there's nothing to drink
And it's no surprise that nothing rhymes with woman
Adrift and marooned on a splinter at sea
Washed up in the desert and there's nothing to drink
Well, oh Lord I'm sure you're bored of forgiving me, ooh
I fell in love with another man's woman
Another man's woman's got a hold on me
She came out of the sun just like a deity
She came in from the rain and she's drowning me
Adrift and marooned on a splinter at sea
Washed up in the desert and there's nothing to drink

And it's no surprise that nothing rhymes with woman
Adrift and marooned on a splinter at sea
Washed up in the desert and there's nothing to drink
Well, oh Lord I'm sure you're bored of forgiving me
Well, oh Lord I'm sure you're bored of forgiving me
Well, oh Lord I'm sure you're bored of forgiving me
