Highway for Fools

Barclay James Harvest

You got the groove, I've got to move
'Cause suddenly something's unreal
I got to go, get up and go
'Cause you ain't the way that I feelI know what I like
And it ain't lookin' at you
If I have to believe
I'll believe in myself and nobody else
Your kind of love ain't for realI got the wheels, I got the deals
But suddenly you ain't so cool
Great God above, it's diamond love
But that kind of rock don't appealI know what I like
And it ain't lookin' at you
If I have to believe
I'll believe in myself and nobody else
Your kind of love ain't for realI got to change, it's feeling strange
And strange is a highway for fools
If it's diamond love that makes you feel good
Then that kind of love I can stealI know what I like
And it ain't looking at you
If I have to believe
I'll believe in myself and nobody else
Your kind of love I can steal
