

Songs We Fall Asleep To

Frank Hamilton

You're a dick but I love you
It's just sometimes I wish that we didn't dissect things
I feel sick when we argue
The world's cold enough without us freezing up over nothing
If you just can't wait 'till you're home
Then call me on the telephone
'Cause you don't need to see my eyes to know We woke up in the movie
Seeing stars in our eye
And the songs we fall asleep to
Help to guide us through the darkest night
's alright, We're alright You're a pain and I feel you
Deep inside of my brain there's a box you keep ticking and
All the shit that we've been through
Goes and comes back around
It's been bringing me down but I know
That when I just can't wait to get home
I'll call you on the telephone
'Cause I don't need to see your eyes to know We woke up in the movie
Seeing stars in our eye
And the songs we fall asleep to
Help to guide us through the darkest night
's alright, We're alright [GUITAR SOLO] You're a dick but I love you
It's just sometimes I wish that we didn't dissect things
I feel sick when we argue
