Miracle In the Making

Daryle Singletary

So I'm told, it happens every day
Common as a wedding in the month of May
It's something my heart won't soon forget
There was nothing ordinary in that moment we metWe may not have seen the sea parted
We may not have tasted water turned to wine
And it may not appear all that earth shaking
Oh, but I believe, we could be a miracle in the makingOne less turn, one more twist of fate
We might have arrived here too early, too late
Some call it chance, I say destiny
And when I hold you in my arms that's all the proof I needWe may not have seen the sea parted
We may not have tasted water turned to wine
And it may not appear all that earth shaking
Oh, but I believe, we could be a miracle in the makingThey say the age of miracles has long since passed
Well, how could that be, we found love at lastI know it may not appear all that earth shaking
Oh, but I believe, our love could be a miracle in the making
Oh, I believe, yes, I believe in miracles
