B-Legit

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

                  Into my destiny, now I see
Was once confused by these haters, now I see I'm in the house, about six, twist the lit
                  I park my V Hic, feedin' my bitch
                  They wonder if I switched since I signed my deal
I'm legit, I'm deep up in this game for real The bars of steel, I got the black gate
                  Twin 38s just to keep things straight
                  I'm late for everything, money is joy
I run the rap game like a ol' D boy I can rock gator boots an' wear K Swiss
                  Put the diamonds on my pinky, watch on my wrist
                  I'll tell you like this, the G's gon' sag
                  Wit some real freem in my bag
An' it goes like this, like this Into my destiny, now I see
Was once confused by these haters in this cold society
                  Now maybe I'm wrong about the way I fluc
                  But the game been so real to me
I can't help but get my skrill I'm in the wind, 600 Benz up in the traffic
                  My rims, reals girls in, it's like magic, it's drastic
                  Tryin' to live the life that I live
I rap P.I. an' stay high as I need I'm a factor, brought in a rapper, I'm from the game
                  Legit is the name, the mo' skrilla the fame
                  In the train, all in Seattle where it rains
You can buy my slang, I'm from the Bay, mayne A rap star piece, I'm a beast on the mic
                  It's ten, I'll creep up in by midnight
                  You can check my rap site, B-Legit.com
                  An' it tell you that, Yo boy, he the bomb
An' it goes like this, like this Into my destiny, now I see
Was once confused by these haters in this cold society
                  Now maybe I'm wrong about the way I fluc
                  But the game been so real to me
I can't help but get my skrill Make way, a brand new day, so peep the boss
                  It's true when I come through, so tear it off
                  It cost, so we all kick it an' ball

An' talk about the platinum an' gold on the wallI'm a savage, ain't nobody bad like me
Got people from the Bay all the way to D.C.

Ask the boy R P an' K R E D

About a hog, out the valley named Legitimate BI'm a mac, I rap on special request

Call me Superman without the cape an' the 'S'

I'm from the hillside an' plan to hold that down

So let me know when you fools hit the westboundI'm feelin' like I got the whole world in my hands

Gator boots on the feet for the limpin'

Sophisticated, high classy

If you gonna have it, have it lavishInto my destiny, now I see

Was once confused by these haters in this cold society

Now maybe I'm wrong about the way I fluc

But the game been so real to me

I can't help but get my skrillInto my destiny, now I see

Was once confused by these haters in this cold society

Now maybe I'm wrong about the way I fluc

But the game been so real to me

I can't help but get my skrillAn' it goes like this, like this, like this

An' it goes like this

An' it goes like this, like this, like this

An' it goes like thisAn' it goes like this, like this, like this

An' it goes like this

An' it goes like this, like this, like this

An' it goes like this
