

In My Sky

Burden Brothers

Been sitting and waiting for you to wake up
Sitting here watching TV
The sound is down, but Im in luck
Cause all I need to know is what I can see
Since I was a child Ive had my doubts
And doubts are comforting
But I need a different comforting now
So wake up and talk to me You and me can slip away at last tonight
I can see your stars are shining in my sky I know you, and youre no saint
And Im nobody
But I got you and you got me to blame
And Im so sorry
Some day Ill find out what you mean
And where were going
Until then I will dream
You wake up and talk to me You and me can slip away at last tonight
I can see your stars are shining in my sky
We can slip away tonight
