Homesick

Train

So you're tired of wakin' up on empty

You left for something that ain't real

So you think a couple of familiar faces

Is gonna turn it all aroundYou wanna be where they still pump your gas for you

Where they remember your name

They think that you are some beauty queen

Or somethin' better, where they remember your nameAnd ain't it good to think about the weather

Doesn't seem to be time for that no more

It's hard to hear when you're busy sayin' what you want said

What you want said, it ain't clearYou wanna be where they still open doors for you

It's not hard for them to remember you at all

They light your cigarette and tell their friends

You used to love them, where they remember your nameMore forgiveness, more time away

From feelin like you do today

More forgiveness, more time away

From feelin this way, alrightIt's easy when you laugh, reminds you of you

It's easy when it's easy, it still ain't easy at all

So you're tired of wakin up on empty

You left for something that ain't right

It ain't right, ain't right, no You wanna be where they still pump your gas for you

Where they remember your name

They think that you are some beauty queen

Or somethin' better, where they remember your nameMore forgiveness, more time away

From feelin like you do today

More forgiveness, more time away

From feelin like you do today, alrightBabe, you're gettin' better

Babe, you're gettin' better

Babe, you're gettin' better, yeahMore forgiveness, yeah

More forgiveness, more forgiveness

More time away from feelin this way

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/