

Falling Down

This Wild Life

When I'm falling down, back to the ground
I know that you'll be there for me
When I'm not around, up in the clouds
I know that you'll be there for me Nobody else can have me the way that you do
Nobody else is holding me down besides you
It's too bad I had to scream and yell
But what you can't tell, is what you came for is gone for now
Keep holding me down, when you hear this sound
Been down before, broken asleep on the floor
I need you more, but something has fallen apart
