You're On

Madeon

Tell me whose side you're on
Tell me whose side you're on
You're on, You're on
Tell me whose side you're onYou have some nerve showing your face here
It'd been so long
I thought you'd disappeared
Why'd you pretend that we're still so close when it's all too clear who you need the mostDamn girl, since you've come around, girl
Need to know right now, so
Won't you just
Tell me whose side you're on
Lately, felt the chance that maybe
You could become my baby
If you just
Tell me whose side you're onTell me whose side you're on You're on, you're on
Tell me whose side you're onIt's been so long since I've heard your name
I was losing hope
That you felt the same
And it's been so long since I've seen your face
That in my own mind
I had been replacedDamn girl, since you've come around, girl
Need to know right now, so
Won't you just
Tell me whose side you're on
Lately, felt the chance that maybe
You could become my baby
If you just
Tell me whose side you're onTell me whose side you're on You're on, you're on
Tell me whose side you're onDamn girl, since you've come around, girl
Need to know right now, so
Won't you just
Tell me whose side you're on
Lately, felt the chance to maybe
You could become my baby
If you just
