Song title: I'm Alive

Song writer(s): Sokol Marisi

Song composer(s): Arber Elshani, Kristijan Lekaj (Zzap'n'Chriss)I was too afraid right from the start

To even let you, welcome you in my heart

You cut it deep and left it bleeding hard

Will i ever heal these painful scars?I just can't help it

I'm out of breath, I'm try and find the words to say

Time pass' by

Now its broad daylightI know you'll come

With the speed of light

You're my everything , all that I need.

You shut down my dreams

But I'm not gonna cry

You live within me, that's why I'm alive

I am alive

Cuz you are my life,

You are my sun,

I am alive, cuz you are my life.Your name is printed crystal clear on glass..

From all the sighs, coming out' my breath

I'm blinded by,

This love can't stop screaming out your name so loud

Where are you at?

Baby won't you come back?I know you'll come

With the speed of light

You're my everything , all that I need.

You shut down my dreams

But I'm not gonna cry

You live within me, that's why I'm alive

I am alive

Cuz you are my life,

You are my sun,

I am alive, cuz you are my life.
