

I Represent

Tonya Mitchell

(Say what)

Yeah, yeah As far as I remember, baby, it was you who said

It ain't working, let's be friends

And now you're trying to call back but there ain't no chance

Let me help you pack your backs It is not my destiny to be played by with ya boy

I'm not some kind of toy less there is a emergency

Don't call me up no more, I'm showing you the door

(No more)'Cos I represent the girls who want that

The girls who say that, the girls who play that

Yes, I represent the girls who want that

The girls who say that, the girls who play that, yeah Yeah, yeah, yeah

(Yeah, yeah, yeah) You must think, I'm crazy

(Crazy)

But I can't comprehend that we can be till the end

(The end)

Still ain't nothing changing, baby

What part of the end you don't understand What's this sense of urgency?

It's something that you had ain't nothing like you had

You must watch too much TV

'Cos this ain't wonderland, I'm telling you again

(Again, again) I represent the girls who want that

The girls who say that, the girls who play that

Yes, I represent the girls who want that

The girls who say that, the girls who play that, yeah Oh yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

The girls who play that, yeah, yeah

Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah T to the O to the N to the Y to the A

We're about to start doing this my way

What? You're leaving and trying to come back

Listen up, boy, a matter of fact It is not my destiny to be played by with ya, boy

I'm not some kind of toy, 'less there is a emergency

Don't call me up no more, I'm showing you the door

(No more)'Cos I represent the girls who want that

The girls who say that, the girls who play that

Yes, I represent the girls who want that

The girls who say that, the girls who play that I represent the girls who want that

(I represent, yes)

The girls who say that, the girls who play that

(Oh yeah)

Yes, I represent the girls who want that

The girls who say that, the girls who play that I represent the girls who want that

(Yeah, yeah)

The girls who say that, the girls who play that

(Play that, I represent)

Yes, I represent the girls who want that

The girls who say that, the girls who play that, yeah
