Alwaysness

Yolanda Adams

Although the sun has been around for a long time
Still has the ability to shine
And although the moon lights up the night
Sometimes it likes to hang out in the sunshine
And although green grass sometimes turn brown
It's refreshed when rain drops come falling down
Creations starts and it's renewed
By a single touch from You
So, I depend on You, no matter what I do
I know You'll always come though
You'll never change the rules
I can depend on the alwaysness of You
Never change, You'll remain
Faithful through life's ups and downs, still the same
Everlasting love for me, so heavenly
That's the alwaysness
The seasons change without a calender
And the breezeless know, how and when to blow
Never have to wonder where the water goes
'Cause it flows home to the ocean floor
Everything reacting in common sense
When placed beneath the of Your omnipotent
Please won't You show me how I should live
So, glory I can give
'Cause I depend on You, no matter what I do
I know You'll always come though
You'll never changed the rules
I can depend on the alwaysness of You
Never change, You'll remain
Faithful through life's ups and downs, still the same
Everlasting love for me so heavenly
That's the alwaysness
Never change, You'll remain
Faithful through life's ups and downs, still the same
Everlasting love for me so heavenly
That's the alwaysness
It's so simple when I do things Your way
So, I try everyday, sometimes my path can get hard
Even when I start off with the best of intentions

I get weak and fall short
And I know when I'm down
You'll be there to lift me up
Your love will never wait
Never change, You'll remain
Faithful through life's ups and downs, still the same
Everlasting love for me so heavenly
That's the alwaysness
Never change, You'll remain
Faithful through life's ups and downs, still the same
Everlasting love for me so heavenly
That's the alwaysness
The alwaysness of God, of God
