Iron Heart (feat. Nina)

MOB & Enemy

Iâ€™ve got an Iron Heart

Your love was in my vanes
Got addicted to you name
I thought I be lost with out you and me

Like a broken record plays with every lie you gave
I love you
I love you
You said every day
My loves not fading away

Am breathing on my own
And the strength is stronger than strong
Nothing can stop me now

And now am breathing on my own and the strength is strong
Nothing can stop me now

I walked away with an iron heart and
I wont let It break
Iâ€™ll be ok
Because you in my past and I'm here and now

I've got an Iron iron iron
Av got an iron heart
Iron iron iron
Av got an iron heart
Iron iron iron
IRONHEART
Iron iron iron
Av got an iron hart

So many broken sleepless nights
And I dream of my brand new life

I tried not to be the person that you made me

Your addicted to my pain and played your stupid games
And now its all to late
This loves has gone to Waste

Iâ€™m grieving on my own and your strength is stronger and stronger

Nothing can stop me now

And now am grieving on my own strength is stronger that strong

Nothing stopping me now

I love you you said every day every record played
