

You Are Golden (feat. Tony Momrelle)

Incognito

It's not so hard to see the light within you the inner flame that burns so brightly through you I look at you and I can see the glory rising ...And all at once you seem to be the noonday shining. You are gold, you are golden, you are gold
You are gold, you are golden you are gold and all that cannot ever be spoken. My guiding hand, my citadel, the voice of reason And my mind's ablaze and life's a maze, you see me through Like a spinning wheel, a carousel gently turning you're the circle that protects my soul, the noonday shining. You are gold, you are golden, you are gold
You are gold, you are golden you are gold and all that cannot ever be spoken.
