Life Is Full

Del Amitri

People say, you are a stand up guy
You'd never hurt no one and you'd never try
And you laugh and you cry
And you do all the things
That anybody does to show they are aliveYour friends say, you are a careful man
You always favor reason where you can
And you laugh and you cry
And you do all the things
That anybody does to show they are aliveBut wherever you go, whatever you do
You know that they won't find a fool quite like youYeah, life is full
(Of easy choices)
Yeah, life is full
(Of simple rules)
But when love comes you don't have no room
When life is full
(Full)People say, you are a patient guy
You'd never rush something if it ain't right
And you laugh and you cry
And you do all the things
That anybody does to show they are aliveAnd you make those mistakes that everybody does
And you deal with them as you go
From tripping on a shoelace to falling in love
You keep things under controlBut wherever you go, whatever you do
You know that they won't find a fool quite like youYeah, life is full (Of easy choices)
Yeah, life is full
(Of simple rules)
But when love comes you don't have no room
When life is full
Now, but life is full
