

If the Rain Must Fall

James Morrison

Oh, life can be strange
Good and bad in so many ways
And in time you will find
That things are not always what they seem Well, I've got something to say
But you might laugh, joke or run away
'Cause I'm awkward and nervous
Sometimes I don't say much at all But if the rain must fall if I lose it all
If the world comes down and takes my soul
If the sky turns black and there's no no way back It won't matter much to me if I had you
All I need is your love that's all I need
All I need is your love Oh, well, dreams can come true
If you know inside you really want them to
Or you can sit you can wait
You can leave your fate in someone else's hands Oh but I, I want you
And nothing else can make me feel the way you do
So I'm waiting, I'm wishing
That it's me you'll be holding tonight and every night
