

He That the Son Hath Set Free

Jimmy Swaggart

Verse 1

I remember standing on the auction block of sin,
Satan controlled me, he had the highest bid.
But the ownership was transferred way back on Calvary,
Jesus whispered, "Child I bought you so that you could be set free."

Chorus:

He that the Son has set free is free indeed.
No more chains of slavery.
Truth has triumphed with liberty.
He that the Son has set free is free indeed.

Verse 2

Now I belong to Jesus, I'm a child of the king,
I traded filthy garments for a robe of royalty.
The chains that used to bind me are laying at my feet,
You see the devil can't make a lock that the Lord doesn't hold the key
