No Direction Home

I Am Kloot

Crawl upon the earth, scour the universe you know
Set my compass north, circumscribe the earth and go
No direction homeWhat's my part in this, whats this dream I cant let go
What's your weight of this?
What'd ya want to see and who'd ya want to know?
You've no direction home, no direction home, no directionFeels like all is lost, there's nowhere left to go
Through the seasoned sands, cross the sky to the morning snow
Is there no direction home, nowhere left to go
No direction home
