Angel With a Broken Wing

Cowboy Mouth

The circle is round, I'll follow the stars
No matter how close, no matter how far
Now that I know that makes you sing
I found an angel with a broken wingI've sacrificed love, for showering hail
Pretty pink dresses have been torn into veils
Now I know what makes you sing
I found an angel with broken wing
I found an angel with broken wing
I found an angel with broken wingAngel, don't fly away Angel, it's meant to be Angel, you're here to stayAngel, I'll set you free-Oh!
