

Rachel

The Idea of North

Rachel, can you hear me calling?
Spring's here, are you near?
My eyes fill to overflowing
You're gone but life goes on And it's hard at first
And I feel impatience growing
And there's anger still
I'm waiting for the axe to fall Won't you take my hand?
Fill my heart and ease my hurting?
I am laid so low
Lift me to the sky
Rachel, can you see day dawning?
Leaves turn, hearts yearn
Rachel, I really must be going
Life's gone, but you go on
