

You Cant Get Enough

Emigrate

Separate from your affliction
Feel alone when I look in your eyes
I'm no longer your addiction
A distant void reflecting in your lies
Don't say a word, don't cryYou can't get enough
Under your skin
You can't get enough
Drawing your sinYour lower power is now calling
Spiders crawling through your open pores
In your presence, I feel you're falling
I say enough but all you want is more
Don't say a word, don't lieYou can't get enough
Under your skin
You can't get enough
Drawing your sin
