Say the Word

Reba McEntire

Ooo, say the word
And I'll be yours
Say the word
So I'll be sure
That what I'm feeling goes for both of us
I need to hear, you tell me what you feel is really loveSay the word
Open up
Say the word
What's the hol' hold up?
Before I go and give off my heart away
I need to know, I'm falling for a man who ain't afraid toSay the word
(Say the word)
And only it's just four little letters
And if you really mean it
You've got me forever
And I've got so much love for you
That all you gotta doIs, say the word
And I'll be there
Anytime, anywhereSay the word
(Say the word)
And only it's just four little letters
And if you really mean it
Ohh, you've got me forever
And I've got so much love for you
That all you gotta doSay the word
And I'll be yours
Say the word
So I'll be sure
Say the word
And I'll be there
Anytime, anywhere
