Falling Apart

Dodd Ferrelle

As the darkness begins, It will swallow me in,
when the sun comes around
i dont want to come down from the edges within i'll be paying for them
when the sun comes around now the suns come around Oh yeah,
can someone put me back together ('cause now im falling apart) woah yeah, the silence sems to last forever (it's when your falling apart) well i know that it's wrong but im not very strong
when the sun comes around (i dont want to come down) as my ends coming clear as i face my all my fear (now i want to come down)
(now i want to come down)
Oh yeah,
can someone put me back together ('cause now im falling apart)

oh yeah, the silence sems to last forever (it's when your falling apart) and it's life that im knowing to well no one cares im alone in this hell
this is my last goodbye and farewell
and i know and i know it to well

oh yeah,
can someone put me back together (cuz now im falling apart) oh yeah, the silence seems to last forever (its when your falling apart)

oh yeah,
can someone put me back together (cause now im falling apart)
oh yeah,
(im losing everything)
(im losing everything)
the silence seems to last forever (im losing everything)
yeah..
'cause now im falling apart.. and i know it
and i know it too well....
