

At My Door

Black Rebel Motorcycle Club

Cold wind wakes me from my sleep

I've waited for this

Something for which I relied

Darkness takes me to my dreams

I've waited for this

Something from which I can't hide

I'll never see it til it's at my door

Til it's at my door, it will be ignored

I'll never see it til it's at my door

Til it's at my door, it will be ignored

Nothing seems to ease

My conscience seems to be

Unconscious, all I have realized

Sorrow seems to eat my being

Only leaves me

Seeing all I have is gone

I'll never see it til it's at my door

Til it's at my door, it will be ignored

I'll never see it til it's at my door

Til it's at my door, it will be ignored
