

[Coffee's For Closers]

Fall Out Boy

I can't explain a thing
I want everything
To change and stay the same on top
Doesn't care about anyone or anything
Now come together, come apart
Only get lonely when you read the charts
Oh baby, when they made me
They broke the mold
Girls used to follow me around
Then I got cold
Throw your cameras in the air
And wave 'em like you just don't care
I will never believe in anything again
I will never believe in anything again
Oh change will come
Oh change will come
I will never believe in anything again
We never believe again
Kick drum beating in my chest again
Oh we will never believe again
Preach electric to a microphone stand
Oh, I'm a mascot for what you've become
And oh, oh, I love the mayhem more than the love
And oh baby, when they made me
They broke the mold
Girls used to follow me around
When I got cold
Throw your cameras in the air
And wave 'em like you just don't care
I will never believe in anything again
I will never believe in anything again
Oh change will come
Oh change will come
I will never believe in anything again
We never believe again
Kick drum beating in my chest again
Oh we will never believe again
Preach electric to a microphone stand
Oh, throw your cameras in the air
And wave 'em 'cause I just don't care
Oh, throw your cameras in the air
And wave 'em 'cause I just don't care
Throw your cameras in the air
And wave 'em like you just don't care
I will never believe in anything again

I will never believe in anything again
Oh change will come
Oh change will come
I will never believe in anything again
We never believe again
Kick drum beating in my chest again
Oh we will never believe again
Preach electric to a microphone stand I will never believe in anything again
I will never believe in anything again
Oh, change will come
Oh, change will come
I will never believe in anything again
I will never believe in anything again We will never believe again
Kickdrum beating in my chest again
Oh we will never believe again
Preach electric to a microphone stand
We will never believe again
Kickdrum beating in my chest again
Oh we will never believe again
Preach electric to a microphone stand
We will never believe again
Kickdrum beating in my chest again
Oh we will never believe again
Preach electric to a microphone stand
