

A Red Letter Day (Motiv 8 twelve Inch master mix)

Pet Shop Boys

Go to work and take your calls
Hang the fruits of your labour on the walls
Such precision and care
What does it matter
If there's no one here to share
The flowers in the garden the wine
The Waiting for the Godot
And so much modern time?
All I want is what you want
I'm always waiting for a red letter day
The years perfecting a stance of
Measured cool fade into insignificance
The moment one starts to understand
What on earth does it profit a man?
All I want is what you want
I'm always waiting for a red letter day
For something special somehow new
Someone saying 'I love you'
Baby I'm waiting for the red letter day
You can sneer or disappear behind a veneer
Of self-control
But for all of those who don't fit
In who follow their instincts
And are told they sin
This is a prayer for a different way
All I want is what you want
I'm always waiting for a red letter day
Like Christmas morning
When you're a kid
Admit you love me and you always did
Baby I'm hoping for that red letter day today
