Lose Lose Situation

Brian McFadden

When we fall out
I like to go drivin' in my car
Listen to something ironic
And end up in a barGet an earful of shit from a stranger
Who's got a broken heart
Weighing out what would be more painful
Staying with your man or going back to herDoesn't everybody feel this way sometimes?
It's a lose, lose situation for a shitty little crime
You can never win with women, it's pointless tryin' to try
It's a lose, lose situation till the day you dieEverybody knows the score
She'll be crying to the mother-in-law
And I'll be sleeping out with the dog
Must give inter-flora a call, a call, a call, a callDoesn't everybody feel this way sometimes?
It's a lose, lose situation for a shitty little crime
You can never win with women, it's pointless tryin' to try
It's a lose, lose situation till the day you dieOoh, la la la, ooh, la la la
Ooh, la la la, ooh, la la la
Ooh, la la la, ooh, la la laThen we make up
I'll be walking on egg shells for a day
And I'll clean the house in the hope that
I might get a layI think back to that drunken stranger
And something that he said
"Ya made ya bed, so lie in it"
She'll be quiet when you're deadDoesn't everybody feel this way sometimes?
It's a lose, lose situation for a shitty little crime
You can never win with women, it's pointless tryin' to try
It's a lose, lose situation till the day you die
It's a lose, lose situation till the day you die
