

For Kicks

Metric

It's all, but it ain't
It's all, but it ain't
So where do I startIt's only so vain
So what did I gain
I gave it my heartI told myself, if I had the wealth
I could buy my way out of everythingWhy'd I have to be such trouble to please
It wouldn't be me, oh if it was easy, if it was easy
Such trouble to please
It wouldn't be easy, if it was meWhy'd I have to go and break your heart for kicks
Why'd I have to go and break what can't be fixedIt's all, but it ain't
It's all, but it ain't
So where does it startI want what I had
I want it so bad
I gave it my heartI told myself, if I had the wealth
I could buy my way out of everythingWhy'd I have to be such trouble to please
It wouldn't be me, oh if it was easy, if it was easy
Such trouble to please
It wouldn't be easy, if it was meWhy'd I have to go and break your heart for kicks
Why'd I have to go and break what can't be fixedWhy'd I have to be such trouble to please
It wouldn't be me, oh if it was easy, if it was easy
Such trouble to please
It wouldn't be easy, if it was meWhy'd I have to go and break your heart for kicks
Why'd I have to go and break what can't be fixedWhy'd I have to go and break your heart for kicks
Why'd I have to go and break what can't be fixedWhy'd I have to go and break your heart for kicks
