Need to Die

Psykosonik

Caught in the mist like a rain shower,
The night's as cold as ice
And wishful thinking won't make it go away,
That's no surprise, yeah
That's no surprise
Of living a lie
That's no surpriseTake your pills alone now,
And make them fly
When your dreams come home now,
You don't need to die
Take your pills alone now,
And make them fly
When your dreams come home now,
You don't need to dieYou're holding back on your insides,
Looks like you hide it well
But happy faces can't cover all your pain,
They keep you in hell, yeah,
They keep you in hellOnly one more day
They keep you in hell
In only one more dayTake your pills alone now,
And make them fly
When your dreams come home now,
You don't need to die
Take your pills alone now,
And make them fly
When your dreams come home now,
You don't need to die
You don't need to die
