SnowFlake

Jason Chen

It gets a little colder
All the leaves are gone
And it feels like it's freezing cold
Right down to the boneI really wanna see you
I wanna let you know
On this snowy Christmas day
Baby I'm coming homeAnd I don't need no presents
You are all that I needSnowflakes fall in the winter
But you're the one to catch my eye
You light up the sky when you shimmer
Outshine the snowy white
If I could pull you out of the sky
On this Christmas day
In my eyes
You're the only snowflakeIt gets a little sweeter
When I see your face
But this year we're making
Memories that can't be erasedWaiting for you to join me
Under the mistletoe
It finally feels like it's Christmas
Anywhere you are is my homeAnd I don't need no presents
You are all that I needSnowflakes fall in the winter
But you're the one to catch my eye
You light up the sky when you shimmer
Outshine the snowy white
If I could pull you out of the sky
On this Christmas day
In my eyes
You're the only snowflakeAll I want for Christmas this year
Is to be with you, hold you close
You are one in a million
You're my only snowflakeAll I want for Christmas this year
Is to be with you, hold you close
You are one in a million
You're my only snowflakeSnowflakes fall in the winter
But you're the one to catch my eye
You light up the sky when you shimmer
Outshine the snowy white
If I could pull you out of the sky

On this Christmas day
In my eyes
You're the only snowflake
