Liar

Christine McVie

Well you cruised into my life
With promised on your sweet lips
With lies on your honeyed tongue
And magic in your fingertipsLiar, you're the Jack of Hearts
Liar, you're the Jack of HeartsLost in the world of your illusions
In which you played the shining knight
I'm turning from your heart of darkness
Into the lightYou're the Jack of Hearts
Liar, you're the Jack of HeartsJust another old dirty game
You're shuffling the cards
You think you've got the winner darlin'
But I'm the one who truly starsNever thought I was a gambler
Never thought I could be your clown
But with one roll of the dice baby
My walls came tumbling downLost in the world of your illusions
In which you played the shining knight
I'm turning from your heart of darkness
Into the lightNever thought I was a gambler
Never thought I could be your clown
But with one roll of the dice baby
My walls came tumbling downLiar, you're the Jack of Hearts
Liar, you're the Jack of Hearts
Liar, you're the Jack of Hearts
Liar, you're the Jack of Hearts
Liar
