

Prowling Night-Hawk

Robert Lee McCoy

Prowling Nighthawk Trk 15 3:03

Robert Lee McCoy

(aka Ramblin' Bob & Robert Nighthawk)

(Robert McCoy)

Recorded: Aurora, Illinois - Leland Hotel Wed May 5th, 1937

Robert Lee McCoy - vocals and guitar with Sonny Boy (John Lee) Williamson I - harmonica

& Joe Williams - guitar.

Album Vol. 3 'That's Chicago's Southside'

BMG Music 63988-2

Transcriber: Awcantor@aol.com

Now, I am the prowlin' nighthawk

I prowл ev'ryday an night

Now, I am the prowlin' nighthawk

I prowл ev'ryday and night

An the reason I prowл so long

My baby don't treat me right I have prowled so long

'Till it made my knee bones so'

I have prowled so long

'Till it have made my knee bones so'

But when I find the little girl that I love

You won't see me prowл no mo' Someday

I ain't gon' be no prowlin' man

I said, someday

I won't be no prowlin' man

I said I ain't gon' be mischievous

Ain't gonna be too hard to understand 'Play it, play it, boy' (harmonica & guitar)

'You know you've been trav'lin' like I have'

'Play that thing, boy' Now, I've been ramblin' an prowlin'

Ever since I was twelve years old

I have been ramblin' an prowlin'

Ever since I was twelve years old

An I wouldn't stop ramblin'

For my weight in gold But someday

I ain't gon' prowл no mo'

Yes, someday

I ain't gon' prowл no mo'

But you know right now

I haven't got no place to go.~

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnlrics.com/>