

Avalon (feat. Myles Kennedy & The Conspirators)

Slash

Through the miles
I cannot escape
My fate I know will come in time
With my back to the wind
I cheated again with a smile Forging love, billowing up
The truth I cannot speak
But I made it back one last time Avalon
It's been way too long
I can see in your eyes
The fire is all but gone Tales untold
Never to know
Unspeakable until the end
All these mysteries
I'll never speak of again That my love
I hope you believe
Now I'm gonna give you every part of me
I am home Avalon
It's been way too long
I can see in your eyes
The fire is all but gone But please keep holding on
Stay tonight
I need your love
And don't say goodbye
My sweet Avalon Oh Avalon
It's been way too long
I can see in your eyes
The fire is all but gone My sweet Avalon
It's been way too long
Avalon it's been way too long
Avalon
