â€œ1000 Facesâ€•

Randy Montana

There's brunettes, blond girls, blue jeans, string of pearls
Take you on a trip around the world, girls
Love has a 1,000 faces
Love has a 1,000 facesThere's debutantes, drama queens, glued to "Bride" magazine
Half caff, two pump, no whip in the coffee bean
Love has a 1,000 faces
Love has a 1,000 facesBut I see youBefore I ever knew you
Before I ever knew you
I dreamed of you
I dreamed of youThere's small town, itty-bitty, tomboy in a big city
Turn your head when the light ain't red, stop traffic kind of pretty
Love has a 1,000 faces
Love has a 1,000 facesBut I see youBefore I ever knew you
Before I ever knew you
I dreamed of you
I dreamed of you, yeahYou're a stormy night, thunder crashing mystery, full of passion
Quiet as a Sunday morning, change without any warning
Love has a 1,000 faces
Love has a 1,000 facesBut I see you
I see you
I see youThere's brunettes, blond girls, blue jeans, string of pearls
Take you on a trip around the world, girls
(Baby, I see you)
Debutantes, drama queens, glued to "Bride" magazine
Half caff, two pump, no whip in the coffee bean
(I see you)Small town, itty-bitty, tomboy in a big city
Turn your head when the light ain't red, stop traffic kind of pretty
(Before I ever knew you)
Storm at night, thunder crashing mystery, full of passion
(Before I ever knew you)
Quiet as a Sunday morning change without any warning
(Before I ever knew you)There's brunettes, blond girls, blue jeans, string of pearls
(Before I ever knew you)
Take you on a trip around the world, girls
Debutantes, drama queens, glued to "Bride" magazine
Half caff, two pump, no whip in the coffee beanSmall town, itty-bitty, tomboy in a big city
(I see you)
Turn your head when the light ain't red, stop traffic kind of pretty
