20 Years

Kawehi

The sky could fall
Everything could fade to black
But in twenty years I'll still want you
In twenty years I'll still want you

People change
When living just to become whole
But in twenty years I'll still want you
In twenty years I'll still want you

[Chorus:]

So tell me that you want me too
Tell me that you'll never go, never leave me
Won't you tell me that you want me too
That I'm all you see.
Yeah, give me twenty years, then twenty more
Tell me that when I die, you die
Won't you tell me that you want me too
That I'm all you need.

The birds could keep quiet
Lonely without song
And wheat fields could swallow us whole
But in twenty years I'll still want you
In twenty years I'll still want you

The wind could keep howling like a million sighs oooh in my ears
But in twenty years I'll still want you
In twenty years I'll want you like I did at day one

[Chorus]

Ooooh, the atmosphere will burn and the trees will disappear Glaciers will melt because we'd rather drive, rather waste than spend the time to walk and talk to each other, ooooh

The rich get richer with their eyes shut, hearts closed

People go hungry 'cause we never give, selfless to those who need it the most

[Chorus]

The sky could fall in twenty years
People change, but I'll still want you

Lyrics Submitted by Rev Egg Plant

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/