

Hallelujah

Kimber Rising

~Verse 1~

The world is spinning 'round and 'round
And out of my control, yeah
Fast and slow and up and down like a rollercoaster
Holding on is getting hard, I'm feelin' like I'm falling What am I supposed to do?
It's about time that I give it to You
Why do I always want to wait
To let You come and save the day? Chorus
'Cause when Your love rains down on me
And I know that You set me free
There is nothing I can do but sing
Hallelujah, Hallelujah
All of my worries just fade away
And it's all gonna be okay
Everyday, He's making me say
Hallelujah, Hallelujah, Hallelujah, yeah ~Verse 2~

Good or bad or in between
The one thing that I know is
You are with me all the time
And always want to show that When everything hits the ground
You will never let me down
'Cause Your love will never change
It's the one thing that remains Chorus
'Cause when your love rains down on me
And I know that You set me free
There is nothing I can do but sing
Hallelujah, Hallelujah
All of my worries just fade away
And it's all gonna be okay
Everyday, He's making me say
Hallelujah, Hallelujah, Hallelujah, yeah ~Bridge~
So everyday, in every way
No matter what life brings
I will put my faith in You instead of putting faith in me
'Cause no matter where I go
I know You've walked that road before
So my Jesus come and let Your Spirit poor Chorus
'Cause when your love rains down on me
And I know that You set me free

There is nothing I can do but sing
Hallelujah, Hallelujah
All of my worries just fade away
And it's all gonna be okay
Everyday, He's making me say
Hallelujah, Hallelujah 'Cause when your love rains down on me
And I know that You set me free
There is nothing I can do but sing
Hallelujah, Hallelujah
All of my worries just fade away
And it's all gonna be okay
Everyday, He's making me say
Hallelujah, Hallelujah, Hallelujah, yeah
Hallelujah, yeah
