

Suburbia

Blanks 77

Johnny was a junkie but his mommy didnt know couldnt see the track marks from his wrists to his elbows she was busy drinking martinis 'cause life in the suburbs aint always that easy julie was perfect yea queen of the prom most likely to suceed by the age of 21 something funny happened to her along the way first she took a hit then she ran away Johnny was found with a needle in his arm mommy couldnt figure out what was wrong tears roll from her tranquilized eyes another pill will kill the pain insideJulie was hangin' from the 12th street bridge her suicide note clenched in her fist it said sorry things turned out this way maybe tomorrow will be a better day
