

Pass In Time

Jonas

Broken memories come back to me
Close my eyes and your face is all I see
Put away your pictures
But the shadows still remain upon my wall
Said you love me, did ya
Did you take away more than nothing
All that you left, you left undone, untied
Somewhere do I still hold a place in your mind

Chorus

Tell me what your dreaming
Is it in color or in black and white
Sometimes living is about leaving
Oh well this to shall pass in time
Yeah this to shall pass in time

So tell me what your dreaming
Is it color or in black and white
Sometimes living is about leaving
Oh well this to shall pass in time

So tell me what your dreaming
Is it in color or in black and white
Sometimes living is about leaving
Well this to shall pass in time
Oh this to shall pass in time
Yes this to shall pass in time
