

Stare At The Sun

MDFMK

The eagle that feeds you
Ties you up and suffocates you Favorite little monkey
Drags you down and complicates you Love and hate combination
Won't survive the separation Soul and body co-exist
Face the antagonist At the right place
At the right time
How does it feel? Don't take this the wrong way
Don't hold it up discreetly
Yeah, more than you could ask for
But none of what you need So don't take this the wrong way
But nothing is for free
It's only an illusion
Impossibility Don't take this the wrong way
When you stare at the sun
What do you see?
Stare at the sun
What do you see?
Stare at the sun
What do you see?
Stare at the sun
What do you see?
Stare at the sun The dislocation
Confusion
Total lack of destination
Nothing left to ask for
Greed exceeds on moderation
Mind over matter
Seeing ladies
Getting fatter
Lock the bunker
Kill the light
Reality is kept outside When the right price
Makes the right deal
You don't disagree Down the wrong way
Off a one-way
Dead-end street Don't take this the wrong way
Don't hold it up discreetly
Yeah, more than you could ask for
But none of what you need So don't take this the wrong way

But nothing is for free
It's only an illusion
Impossibility Don't take this the wrong way
When you stare at the sun
What do you see?
Stare at the sun
What do you see?
Stare at the sun
What do you see?
Stare at the sun
What do you see? A million excuses
To avoid compatibility Normal disposition
