Where Did the Love Go

Sylver

Children walking hand in hand
Playing in the poisoned sand
Generations on the move
Unconvinced by the power of proofHustle for the darkest gold
The very truth remains untold
Will somebody please tell the man
That the shit has hit the fanWhere did the love go
Where is it now
Where did the love go
Did we lose it somehowTell me, tell meThe absentminded rule the world
Wasting lives for what it's worth
Patriots fulfil their needs
Powered by the hands of greedHustle for the darkest gold
The very truth remains untold
Will somebody please tell
The man that the shit has hit the fanWhere did the love go
Did we lose it somehowWhere did the love go
Where is it now
Where did the love go
Did we lose it somehowTell me, where did the love go
