

If Not You

Baryshnikov

I'll admit, I can be hard to please
Now and then I disagree just to disagree
There are times, I want what I want 'cause I want it
And there are things, I don't know I have when I've got 'em But when I look at you, I ask myself
How could there be somebody else? If not you, who
Is ever gonna make me happy
If not love, what
Is it I feel for you If I search the world
Over under still I wonder
Who would I be looking for?
Yeah, who, if not you When I'm stuck and feel locked up you turn the key
You minimize all of my insecurities
You always seem to know what I need when I need it
And when I say I need only you, believe it Of all the many mysteries yet to come
I'll have solved the most important one If not you, who
Is ever gonna make me happy
If not love, what
Is it I feel for you If I search the world
Over under still I wonder
Who would I be looking for?
Yeah, who, if not you There are times I want what I want 'cause I want it
And there are things, I don't know I have when I've got 'em But when I look at you, I ask myself
How could there be somebody else If not you, who
Is ever gonna make me happy
If not love, what
Is it I feel for you If I search the world
Over under still I wonder
Who would I be looking for?
Yeah, who, if not you If not you
If not you
If not you
Who
If not you
If not you If not you, who
If not you
If not you If not you
