On The Cross

Samuel Cornell

ON THE CROSS
By Samuel Cornell

On the cross He saved me,
And He healed me, and He
Took me in His arms and He loved me.

They whipped His back till the Blood came out and the pierced His side,
Like it was nothing.

On the cross He saved me,
And He healed me, and He
Took me in His arms and He loved me.

Iâ€™ll never know how He must have felt,
Oh to die for someone else.

And they pulled His Beard, spit on His face,
Gave His a crown of thorns,
They put the Nails in His Hand and
There His Heart was Tornâ€¦â€¦â€¦

On the cross, On the cross, On the cross
On the cross, On the cross, On the cross,

On the cross,
On the cross,
On the cross.

On the cross He saved me,
And He healed me, and He
Took me in His arms and He loved me.
