

Good Enough

In Stereo

Just a month ago you were in my arms
Begging me please don't go
I said I got to leave for a couple weeks
But I'll be back before you know It's like 1, 2, 3 just you and me
Thought everything was fine
But when I came back home you didn't pick up your phone
And like I do, I wondered why Then I saw you with another guy I knew you were gone
When I saw you getting out of his van
Dancing to the radio
You were looking in his eyes the way you looked at mine
Just a few weeks ago
And I heard you made plans to travel the world
But girl what happened to us
Now you're holding his hand and smiling so grand
I guess I wasn't good enough It all started when you needed space (okay)
Said that I was too in your face (what)
You wanna spend time alone (whatever)
Well I guess I should've known That you were going down out of town with another guy
I was on my own all alone trying to pass the time
I didn't see it coming
But it was right before my eyes And I'm feeling good tonight I knew you were gone
When I saw you getting out of his van
Dancing to the radio
You were looking in his eyes the way you looked at mine
Just a few weeks ago
And I heard you made plans to travel the world
But girl what happened to us
Now you're holding his hand and smiling so grand
I guess I wasn't good enough Then you caught me watching
From right across the road
I was standing at your door
Waiting for you to come home
You looked into my eyes
And there's no more disguise And I knew you were gone When I saw you getting out of his van
Dancing to the radio
You were looking in his eyes the way you looked at mine
Just a few weeks ago
And I heard you made plans to travel the world
But girl what happened to us

Now you're holding his hand and smiling so grand
I guess I wasn't good enough
No, I guess I wasn't good enough
I guess I wasn't good enough
But maybe you weren't good enough
